

let us tell you a story

FORWARD

Ireland is the story telling capital of the world. From the celebrated Seanchaí of the rugged west coast to the chaotic chatter of its cities, the nation brims full of talk and tales.

To keep that famous Irish tradition alive, we assembled some of the stories behind the cocktails. Some stories may be true; some may be folklore from generations of the bartending craft, but all will intrigue you.

Hopefully you will find what you're looking for from this enchanting list. Alternatively, the skilled bartenders can create any potion you are seeking.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

No story is possible without the author - our bartenders - and the reader, your good self. Thank you for being part of the ongoing story of 10 Fleet Street Restaurant & Bar.

Chapter 3

Vodka Cocktails

Introducing main characters

Famous the world over, but perfected in eastern Europe, vodka has been used as a medicine for centuries and can still be used for disinfection or healing a poison ivy rash. It can apparently also be used to keep clothes smelling fresh or preserve flowers for longer.

SYMPHONY 13.50

A bittersweet symphony this life. This mixture of the two can captivate the toughest of audiences.

Absolut Peach, Galliano, lime and lemon juice with a splash of soda

CUCUMIS 13.50

Cucumbers have the ability to cool the body's blood temperature – hence the term 'cool as cucumber'.

A great way to drink your vitamins.

House-infused cucumber Absolut Vodka, triple sec, white cranberry, cucumber syrup, lime and lemon juice

SKULL ISLAND 13.50

Coconut, derived from the Spanish work 'coco' meaning skull, due to the three indentations resembling facial features. They are an intricate factor to this cocktail, with added heat from the Caribbean.

House-infused chilli Absolut Vodka, Malibu, coconut syrup, coconut water, cherry

LEMON PIE 13.50

Better than your mother makes!

House-infused citrus Absolut Vodka, house-infused vanilla vodka, lemon juice, apple juice, vanilla syrup

Vodka Cocktails Continued

Shaking things up

PERK 13.50

Espresso has become regulated by the Italian government as it is seen as an essential part of daily life. You'll be tempted to make this twist on an Espresso Martini part of your daily life.

House-infused vanilla Absolut Vodka, Mozart Chocolate Liqueur, caramel syrup, shot of espresso, cocoa powder

BOND 14.50

The cocktail with a murky origin, hundreds of people and cities claim to have created the first Martini. It didn't happen here, but here's our version. Ciroc, meaning summit-top, uses grapes that are grown at a high altitude. This makes it different from most vodkas that use grain, potatoes or corn.

Ciroc Premium Vodka, Noilly Pratt, lemon twist, green olives

FORBIDDEN 15

The grapefruit was discovered in Barbados as an accidental cross of two species of fruit. Grey Goose is a very inoffensive vodka and considered by some the smoothest in the world.

Grey Goose vodka, Triple sec, grapefruit juice, fresh grapefruit

Chapter 4

Gin Cocktails

Rising drama

Gin is a liquor which derives its predominant flavor from juniper berries. Despite popular belief, Gin was discovered in Holland when the Dutch army were drinking it before battle – giving them “Dutch Courage”. The English then brought it back after their victory and began a campaign to make it the nation’s drink of choice ahead of imported spirits like French brandy.

HOT ROSE 13.50

A classic Hendricks blend, spiced up with chilli pepper.

*Hendricks Gin, Chartreuse, lime juice,
cucumber syrup, fresh basil, chilli pepper*

BANGLADESH 14.50

Next time you think of sending flowers, go for mangos instead - giving someone a basket of mangos is a gesture of friendship.

*Beefeater 24 Gin, mango puree, lime juice,
Mediterranean tonic water, fresh mango*

SANCTUARY 13.50

If you want to see fairies, just stand under an Elder tree on Midsummer’s Eve, but be careful not to fall asleep because they’ll carry you away!

Tanqueray gin, lime juice, elderflower tonic, fresh elderflowers

MORGUN 15

Oriental botanicals fused with the local Irish variety make this Drumshanbo gin extra special.

*Gunpowder Gin, Aperol, lime juice, ginger syrup,
ginger ale, grapefruit*

Gin Cocktails Continued

(Watch out for the twist)

CHERRY TREE 13.50

You can no longer find a pure-bred maraschino cherry as so many imitations were made when they hit popularity, they were produced as quickly as possible.

Beefeater Gin, Chartreuse, Maraschino Liqueur, lime juice, cherry liqueur

WHITE LADY 13.50

Named after an unusual standing stone resembling a figure in Dunmore East, Co Waterford, she watches over the Celtic Sea. An ancient religious monument or a guide for fisherman, nobody knows.

Blackwater No 5 Gin, Triple Sec, lemon juice, syrup, egg white, lemon twist

EXTRA MIL 13.50

Iberian-Irish fusion, personified through the story of Mil, the mythical Spanish warrior whose descendants brought the warm flavors to our land.

Mil Irish Gin, elderflower, cherry blossom tonic and edible flowers.

RUBY 14

Ireland's first rhubarb gin. Rhubarb has been used for medicinal purposes for millenia in China and is becoming ever more popular.

*Ha'penny Rhubarb Gin, apple juice, lime juice,
lemon juice and basil leaf*

Chapter 5

Nightcaps

*Everything's alright in the end.
If it's not alright,
it's not the end*

PURPLE RAIN 15

Prince dedicated his famous song to his father and this cocktail is dedicated to the musician's unique musical brilliance

Don Julio Tequila, lavender and lemon juice shaken with egg whites

A twist on John Lennon's favourite drink.
Named after Russian Tsar, Alexander II,
this is the III and I of its kind.

ONCE UPON A BRANDY 15

This was always a brandy of exception,
but once upon a time we gave to it a way
of storytelling that will be forever unique in taste.

The End.

*Hennessy, lime juice, syrup, egg white, dashes
of storyteller bitters, touch of agave bitter sauce spray*

Chapter 5: Alternate Ending Mocktails

*All the drama of the original story,
without losing focus*

UBER 8

Passion fruit, lime juice, elderflower extract,
topped with lemonade

STRAWBERRY NOJITO 8

Strawberry puree, fresh mint leaves, simple syrup,
lime juice, topped with soda
